The last sentence should read

Thus, within the context of primary health care, UNFPA will build on its traditional support, according to need, through the strengthening or addition of services that seek to improve reproductive health by reducing the need for abortion; preventing and treating reproductive tract infections, including STDs; preventing HIV/AIDS; preventing and providing appropriate treatment of infertility; providing routine screening for other reproductive health conditions; and discouraging harmful practices such as female genital mutilation.