11. One representative proposed that the Administrator should be encouraged to undertake the necessary adjustments of various units, such as the Division for Eastern Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States, as part of the organizational restructuring to enhance the ability of the UNDP to fulfil its mission.
ANNEX

12. The Executive Board adopted the following decisions:

94/14. Future of UNDP

The Executive Board

1. Commends the Administrator on his report entitled "Initiatives for change" (DP/1994/39), and welcomes the initiatives proposed therein;

2. Supports the global framework for the United Nations Development Programme set out in the report and agrees that the overall mission of the UNDP should be to assist programme countries in their endeavour to realize sustainable human development, in line with their national development programmes and priorities;

3. Encourages the Administrator to continue his efforts to focus the programme of the UNDP by operationalizing the three goals and four priority areas outlined in the report, taking into account the views expressed at the 1994 annual session and the ongoing discussions on the successor arrangements to the fifth programming cycle;

4. Emphasizes that national development priorities shall be the primary determinant of UNDP-supported programmes, which must remain country-driven;

5. Takes note of the organizational restructuring proposed by the Administrator to enhance the ability of the UNDP to fulfil its mission, and encourages the Administrator to undertake the necessary adjustments to this end;

6. Requests the Administrator to report back to the Executive Board at the 1995 annual session on his progress in moving the agenda of the UNDP forward as outlined in paragraph 3 of the present decision.
