GOVERNING COUNCIL
Twenty-eighth session
June 1981
Agenda item 10 (c)

OTHER MATTERS

FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF THE ORGANIZATION
OF THE SESSIONS OF THE COUNCIL

Proposed revisions of the rules of procedure
of the Governing Council

In the light of the Governing Council's decision with respect to streamlining and rationalizing its work, the Council may wish to consider and approve the following revisions of its rules of procedure:

Rule 1

(Existing Rule 1 shall be part 1 of revised Rule 1)

2. The Governing Council shall hold an organizational meeting early in each calendar year at such times as the Governing Council determines, but in no case later than the last day in February. The organizational meeting shall be responsible for the election of officers of the Governing Council, for the adoption of the agenda of the Governing Council's regular session and for any other matters the Governing Council may determine.

Rule 9

In the first sentence, for "at the beginning of each session" read "at its organizational meeting".

Rule 11

1. In the first sentence, for "at the commencement of its regular session" read "at its organizational meeting"; and for "a Rapporteur" read "a Fourth Vice-President".
