GOVERNING COUNCIL
Working Group
Twenty-ninth session
June 1982, Geneva
Agenda item 6(f)

TECHNICAL CO-OPERATION AMONG DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

Draft decision submitted by Argentina, Bangladesh, Barbados, Bhutan, Burma, Brazil, China, Congo, Cuba, Ecuador, Gabon, India, Malawi, Mali, Mexico, Niger, Rwanda, Somalia, Sri Lanka, Trinidad and Tobago, Tunisia, Uganda, Venezuela, Zambia

The Governing Council,

Recalling its decision 79/29 on the strengthening of the Special Unit for Technical Co-operation among Developing Countries and the need for further information to confirm the successful translation of technical co-operation among developing countries into the day-to-day activities of the programme and removal of barriers to the advancement of the technical co-operation among developing countries movement in general,

Taking note of the fact that technical co-operation among developing countries has now been successfully translated into concrete reality in a good number of projects and other activities and that the regional bureaux have become fully involved in the process,

Noting the Buenos Aires Plan of Action and General Assembly resolution 33/134 which entrusted the overall intergovernmental review of technical co-operation among development countries within the United Nations system to the High-level Committee on Technical Co-operation among Developing Countries,

Having considered the reports of the Administrator contained in documents DP/1982/42 and Add.1, DP/1982/52 and DP/1982/53 in respect of Technical Co-operation among Developing Countries,

Requests the Administrator of UNDP to consult with the High-level Committee at its third session in 1983 on the proposed measures with a view, inter alia, of strengthening further the Special Unit on Technical Co-operation among Developing Countries.
