Agenda item 8 (d)

Integration of issues relevant to women into TCDC promotional and operational activities

DRAFT DECISION SUBMITTED BY BANGLADESH

The High-level Committee,

Recalling its decision 2/2 on the promotion of women's participation in development programmes through technical co-operation among developing countries and its decision 3/7 on integration of women in development through technical co-operation among developing countries and taking note of the Report of Women and New and Renewable Sources of Energy - a TCDC approach prepared by the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women (INSTRAW),

1. Invites the agencies and organizations of the United Nations system to include specific reference to women in all TCDC promotional activities as an important aspect of human resource development;
2. Invites the agencies and organizations of the United Nations development system to further elaborate and disseminate guidelines on incorporation of issues relevant for the advancement of women into TCDC programmes and projects;
3. Invites developing countries to elaborate proposals for applicable and feasible TCDC programmes and projects benefiting women;
4. Reiterates the importance of networking and strengthening of linkages between national focal points for technical co-operation among developing countries and women's and professional organizations having experience with women's issues and development issues;
5. Requests the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme to strengthen support to the incorporation of issues relevant to women through an increased co-operation with the organizations, such as INSTRAW, which are active in the field of women and development.
