Thirty-third session
June 1986, Geneva

Expression of appreciation to Bradford Morse
Administrator of UNDP, 1976-1986

Submitted by the President on behalf of all the Members of the Council

The Governing Council,

Noting with regret the decision of Mr. Bradford Morse to retire from his duties as Administrator of UNDP,

Considering his dynamism, enthusiasm, firm commitment and unrelenting efforts to alleviate human suffering and to improve the economic and social conditions in the developing countries by raising the level of resources, increasing the numbers and improving the quality of the programmes of UNDP, as well as the special funds under his administration,

Acknowledging with great satisfaction that under his guidance the UNDP achieved significant progress in promoting the economic and social progress in the developing countries of the world,

1. Expresses its sincere appreciation and gratitude to Mr. Bradford Morse for the effective and dedicated manner in which he performed his functions as Administrator of UNDP from 1976 to 1986, and additionally as Director of the Office for Emergency Operations in Africa (OEOA) from 1985 to 1986,
 2. Extends its best wishes to him and his family for a long, happy life and continued success in the future.
