Special measures for Mauritania

Draft decision submitted by the African Group, Socialist States of Eastern Europe, Arab States, India, Bangladesh */

The Governing Council,

Considering that, by its resolution 40/219 the General Assembly asked UNDP to take special measures for Mauritania, pending examination of its situation by the Committee for Development Planning, which recommended that Mauritania be included in the list of the least developed countries,

Invites the Administrator to take special measures for Mauritania, pending the approval of the decision of the Committee of Development Planning by the Economic and Social Council and the General Assembly.
