The Governing Council,

Requests the Administrator to submit at its organizational session 1989, a report indicating the response of or any action to be taken by the United Nations Development Programme to actions taken by the other organs of the United Nations system in 1988, which call for action by, or are of relevance to, the United Nations Development Programme and/or its Governing Council.